PHILOSOPHY:

Teaching children and adults how to swim is extremely gratifying for me.

There are so many lifelong benefits that swimming has: improves physical and emotional health, fights obesity, secures your safety in the water, and can even save your life!

I have taught children of all ages, adults, even competitive swimmers.

Taking a customized approach, I understand that everyone's learning style is different.

I encourage you to contact me for any and all questions, it will be my pleasure to help.
